What is the QLTS?

The QLTS is the Qualified Lawyers Transfer Scheme, the fast-track route for international lawyers, and barristers in England and Wales, to qualify as English solicitors.

The scheme is administered by the Solicitors Regulation Authority (SRA), the independent regulatory body of the Law Society of England and Wales, ensuring candidate assessment is both rigorous and fair.

The purpose of the QLTS assessments is to ensure that all candidates who qualify as solicitors have the knowledge, skills and ability necessary to perform their role competently and ethically.

The SRA has published a statement of what all solicitors who follow the domestic route to qualification should know and be able to do at the point of qualification. This statement is described at the ‘Day One Outcomes’. Using the Day One Outcomes as a starting point, all foreign lawyers are required to demonstrate that they have the equivalent knowledge and understanding of law and practice in England and Wales in the same areas as that required of individuals who qualify under the domestic route.

The QLTS assessments, which have been in place since 2011, replaced the QLTT which is no longer in force. The QLTS has been successful in attracting many applicants from various jurisdictions, who are now dual-qualified English solicitors.
Why become an English solicitor?

There are numerous reasons to become qualified in English law. While taking the QLTS will undoubtedly enhance your legal career, this qualification will also improve your professional profile and knowledge, and provide you with diverse and unique opportunities.

By investing in the QLTS you are investing in yourself – you can work in any international law firm in the world with a base in the UK or other EU countries. You can practise law cross-border, work in London or other cities in England, Europe or further afield. Or you may choose to stay in your current jurisdiction and offer additional legal services to your existing clients.

Whatever your reason for becoming an English solicitor, you will benefit: English law is held in high esteem and is frequently the law of choice in cross-border transactions; London is among the leading legal centres in the world and the internationally preferred seat of international disputes; and as a dual-qualified lawyer, you will be a valuable and trusted international legal adviser, and will gain a competitive advantage over your peers.

Becoming an English solicitor may mean:

- Discovering new career opportunities
- Working as a solicitor in England and Wales
- Enhancing your professional profile, reputation and marketability in your home jurisdiction
- Offering a wider range of legal services to your clients
- Representing clients in international arbitrations and cross-border disputes
- Becoming familiar with a common law system
- Winning more business and increasing your revenues
How are you assessed on the QLTS?

The full range of skills required to practise English law are tested on the QLTS, including oral, written and professional. The QLTS assessments are designed to test applicants on most of the SRA’s Day One Outcomes expected of a solicitor on qualification.

The assessments are divided into two parts:

Part 1: Multiple Choice Test (MCT)
This tests knowledge and understanding of professional conduct, solicitors’ accounts, financial regulation, property law, taxation, business law, contract and tort, the English legal system, constitutional law, equity and trusts, human rights and EU law. The MCT is a computer-based assessment which consists of 180 multiple choice questions, divided into two periods of two hours and 45 minutes each, with 90 questions in each session.

Part 2: Objective Structured Clinical Examination (OSCE)
This tests the skills of interviewing, advocacy/oral presentation, online legal research, legal drafting and legal writing, in the context of three legal practice areas: Business Law, Litigation (Civil and Criminal) and Property Law (Conveyancing, Wills and Probate).

The skills are assessed through simulated legal environments known as OSCE ‘stations’. The OSCE is normally offered across several consecutive days.

Assessment Rules
- The MCT must be passed before the OSCE can be attempted
- There is no restriction on the number of assessment attempts you may take, nor a time limit for completing the two assessments within a certain time period
- Candidates are not allowed to use any materials during the assessments

The best analogy to the QLTS is a driving test: whilst the MCT is equivalent to the theory test element, the OSCE comprises the practical component, where you are expected to demonstrate your competence in the skills required.
Eligibility Criteria

Applicants who wish to qualify as English solicitors via the QLTS route must first ensure they meet the SRA eligibility criteria for admission.

To be eligible to apply for admission, you must hold the correct professional qualification in a jurisdiction that the SRA recognises, and meet the requirements as to character and suitability. If you are aware of anything which might prevent you from meeting these requirements, you can apply to the SRA for an early check on any character and suitability issue prior to sitting the assessments.

There is no internship or experience requirement to complete under the QLTS, nor do you have to take any separate English language test.

European Economic Area (EEA), Intra-UK and Swiss applicants may apply to the SRA for exemption from assessment if they can show they possess sufficient knowledge in a particular legal area (a fee of £400 is payable to the SRA with the application). Lawyers qualified in other countries cannot get exemptions.

For any questions relating to your eligibility, to request an early assessment or seek any exemption, please contact the SRA:

There are no formal requirements to comply with before taking the QLTS assessments. You can simply contact Kaplan and register to sit the assessments at any time. The MCT is delivered online in conjunction with Pearson VUE.

Following registration for the QLTS assessments, each candidate will receive an examinee number, exact locations of the testing centres and a detailed schedule of the assessments.

Candidates with special needs should contact the assessment provider with a request for specific testing arrangements.

The results of the assessments are made available a few weeks after the date of each assessment.

Admission to the Roll of Solicitors

Once you have passed the QLTS assessments and fulfilled any outstanding requirements set by the SRA, you may proceed to the next step and apply to the SRA for admission as an English solicitor.

If you do not intend to practise in England and Wales following successful completion of the assessments, you can still maintain your name on the Roll of Solicitors.
Why do you need a QLTS course provider?

The assessment provider, Kaplan QLTS, is not allowed to provide preparation courses for the QLTS assessments.

The scope of the material, however, is very comprehensive and based on the same standards expected of lawyers who qualify through the domestic route in England and Wales. That means you must meet rigorous and robust criteria in order to pass the assessments, which require an early and profound preparation.

It is therefore extremely important that you study for the assessments with a course provider that understands your needs and will provide you with the right guidance.

If you want to become an English solicitor, a big factor in determining whether you’ll pass your QLTS assessments is the course provider itself. Without excellent teaching, informative materials, a support network and experienced staff to guide you, passing will be more difficult.

- MCT Video Library of over 80 online tutorials with professional presentations, 35+ hours of lectures, available to watch on your computer, iPad, iPhone or Android devices
- QLTS Course Handbook explaining the fundamentals of the QLTS assessments, course structure, suggested study guide and test administration procedures
- Revision notes summarising the key points and main legal principles in each subject

- 15 MCT mock tests with intermingled questions and a time limit similar to the formal test
- Free updates for the course materials
- Optional tutor support, initial guidance and a tailor made study plan prepared by a senior tutor

The multiple choice questions, mock tests, video library, revision notes and updates for the course materials are accessible through our MCT online training system.

Access to the MCT online training system is for 12 months, commencing on the first day of registration, or until you have passed the MCT, whichever happens first.

Why do you need to take a course for the MCT assessment?

The MCT is not just another standard examination. The pass mark is determined by a ‘Standard Setting Panel’ convened by the SRA based on the standards expected of a newly qualified English solicitor. The syllabus covers the entire corpus of English law, and you need to be well-prepared in order to pass.

If you’ve sat a multiple choice test in the past, you’ll know that practising as many mock exam questions as possible is the key to your success. You need to be comfortable with the format and type of questions the examiner uses in the actual test. This way, you’ll be prepared, not surprised, when test day arrives.

High Pass Rates

QLTS School has engaged ICF International (NASDAQ:ICFI), an independent, third-party research firm to conduct a market study on the MCT and validate the pass rates of our candidates.

The findings of the study, which covered three consecutive sittings of the MCT in 2013 and 2014, have shown the following:

- QLTS School’s candidates pass at about double the rate—or more—compared to non-QLTS School candidates
- About 3 out of 4 candidates who pass the assessment, study with QLTS School
- The vast majority of candidates who study with QLTS School pass on the first attempt

The conclusion is that taking the QLTS School’s MCT course will dramatically improve your prospects of success and give you a significant advantage over candidates who have not been studying with us.

The OSCE Course

While the MCT element merely tests your knowledge of academic law, the OSCE practical assessment aims to test higher level of knowledge, understanding and ability to accurately advise clients using a variety of legal skills.

What makes our OSCE course unique?

Studying for the OSCE assessment requires more than simply reading through textbooks or attending lectures or seminars, as you may have done during your formative legal studies.

The focus is firmly on you mastering and displaying considerable legal knowledge in the relevant legal practice areas, as well as foundation subjects, and successfully using the skills expected of a practising solicitor.

Our course is therefore designed to bridge the gap between your academic study and legal skills, which can only be gained through practical experience.

From day one an expert tutor will be guiding you through a programme customised for your particular needs and goals. Our expert tutors are drawn from Qualified Solicitors and Barristers, University Law Lecturers and SRA External Examiners on the Legal Practice Course.

The nature of the course promotes flexible learning. You can practise the skills required whenever it suits you – making it ideal if you work full-time and allowing you to balance the many demands for your time and attention.

The OSCE course features:

- An initial interview with one of our senior tutors to assess your experience and level of training and tuition required
- A tailor-made study plan prepared by our senior tutor, designed specifically to meet your personal needs and requirements
- Course Guide
- OSCE practice area summaries
- Expert guidance and direct contact with experienced tutors during the course
- 125 OSCE mock exams with suggested solutions for self-assessment
- Access to the content of OUP lecturer resources
- Access to QLTS Skills Online – more than 60 interactive exercises covering all of the five skills, complemented by video and audio material and a 130-page accompanying book, ensuring that you are familiar with the principles behind each skill
- Free periodic updates for the course materials
- Legal research guides for using LexisLibrary and Westlaw
- Legal Skills Video Workshops (see next page)
- Mock practice stations with personal tutor feedback based on the SRA marking criteria
Key Benefits

- Client interviewing: the videos simulate real interviews between a solicitor and a client, including: the initial stages of an interview; building rapport and dealing with emotional clients; asking questions; taking notes and dealing with documents; and closing the interview and preparing an attendance note.

- Advocacy: learn what is involved in contentious advocacy so that you can demonstrate the role and duties of an advocate in both civil and criminal courts.

- Oral presentation: develop your non-contentious presentation style and gain invaluable insight on how to make a presentation to a client in the solicitor’s office on a legal issue.

- Legal writing: learn from an experienced tutor with extensive experience in practice, who will walk you through the most important things to focus on when you write a letter of advice or an email to your client, an internal memo or an attendance note.

- Legal drafting: receive guidance on drafting commonly used documents in various contexts you may be faced with during the assessment, including commercial contracts, board minutes, statements of case, a defence statement, and a will. The presentation will also address the right way to use precedent documents and completing forms.

- Legal research: a detailed walkthrough of completing a legal research task, from understanding the parameters of the task through to a research letter of advice or memo. You will also benefit from practical and time-saving examples of how to use both LexisLibrary and Westlaw to conduct the required research.

Mastering the Five Skills in order to Achieve Success in the Practical Assessment

This resource includes a suite of more than 50 video workshops with roleplay scenarios and professional presentations (spanning nearly 8 hours in total), including pre and post-commentary notes delivered by an experienced legal skills trainer. You will also receive access to summaries of key points (about 70 pages in total).

The workshops provide practical demonstrations and comprehensive guidance so that you can reinforce and master your legal skills before attempting the assessment, feel more confident and know what to do, and equally importantly, what not to do, to pass. This means you will derive greater value from the mock exams included in your course package as you will understand exactly what is required of you and avoid common errors which will detract from your overall performance.

Success Stories of QLTS School’s Candidates

Don’t just take our word for it – here’s what our recent candidates who passed the assessments on their first attempt say...

Invaluable Resources, Complete Preparation

“I don’t think I would have successfully completed the MCT and OSCE, without studying with the QLTS School. The materials they provided were so beneficial for me, that it really prepared me to know what to expect when it came to the exams. I would strongly recommend that anyone who is considering taking the QLTS assessments, study with the QLTS School.”

Sarah Lothian
Qualified Lawyer in Australia

Flexible Study Options

“Preparation for the OSCE is different than the MCT. So reading textbooks is not enough. This is where QLTS School’s tutors come into play by making the preparation easier and running mock exams with you. I felt well prepared when I came to take the assessments. I also like that this is a self-study course and that you can practise over the Internet.”

Wojciech Baginski
Attorney at Law (New York State), Foreign Lawyer (Poland)

Very Positive Experience, Extremely Helpful Tutors

“My experience with QLTS School was very positive. There was an enormous number of practice questions so I felt very well prepared for the MCT assessment. For the OSCE, I have found my tutor extremely helpful. She had ideas and tips that I would have not thought of myself, as the tutor was an experienced exam assessor and knew exactly what the assessor at the exam would expect of me.”

Sharika Nair
Qualified Lawyer in India

Practical Advice, Added Value

“I prepared for the MCT with QLTS School and successfully passed on my first attempt. I initially decided not to take the preparation course for the OSCE with QLTS School, but I had difficulties in preparing on my own, so I have decided to take the preparation course with QLTS School again, and then I successfully passed the OSCE.”

Kyoungho Kim
Dual Qualified Lawyer in South Korea and England and Wales
Build Your Confidence

“QLTS School’s preparation meant I felt at ease during the MCT. In the OSCE, as soon as I started the interviewing and the writing, I felt very confident, because I was very well prepared with QLTS School.”

Adriana Guerra Speight
Qualified Lawyer in Mexico and Solicitor in England and Wales

Absolutely Necessary to have a Training Course before Taking the Assessments

“I have found that the mocks exams were very helpful to be done with a tutor, as well as working together and getting feedback on those exams. The more exams you can do the better. I have in fact encouraged our new counsels that are joining our company that they should also take the Premium Course to be able to have even access to more of those, which I consider to be essential for the preparation.”

Stephen Kines
Qualified Lawyer in the US (NY and Washington DC) and Canada (Ontario)

Check Your Progress with Practice Assessments

“QLTS School were very good, especially with the MCT mock exams and the mock interviews for the OSCE. I felt very well prepared when I came to take the MCT as I worked through many mock exams before the MCT itself. I would recommend the QLTS School course to anyone who needs guidance with the materials and the exams in general.”

Tanja Patt
Qualified Lawyer in Germany and Solicitor in England and Wales

Practical, No-Nonsense Advice and Materials

“I think the MCT question bank was very useful. The mock tests simulated the format and style of the questions in the exam. That prepared me well for the actual assessment. The summary materials provided for the MCT were also useful. Being qualified in another jurisdiction will certainly help my career in the long term.”

Alex McGregor
Qualified Lawyer in Australia and Solicitor in England and Wales

Terms & Conditions

1. Delivery times are from the day an order is placed. They do not include time delays caused by the imposition of local customs or import taxes, if any.

2. The copyright of all course materials remains that of QLTS School. Such materials may not be reproduced whether in all or in part by any method whatsoever, without prior permission having been given in writing by QLTS School.

3. All materials are watermarked with the purchaser’s unique identifier version code. QLTS School will use this information to track any items that have been used by, shared and/or distributed to any other person, contrary to these terms and conditions.

4. Access to the MCT Online Training System and the availability of the 2 hours of tutor support are for 12 months from the date of enrolment to the course, or until you have passed the MCT, whichever happens first.

5. Your online account and course materials are for your sole use and may not be used by, shared, transferred, sold or offered to any other person except yourself by any means.

6. If QLTS School determines that any candidate has violated the policies set forth here or any applicable laws or regulations, it reserves the right, in its sole discretion, to deny further access to the candidate’s online account, without limiting any other rights or remedies it may have.

7. Course fees do not include any fees payable to the SRA or the assessments provider. Further applications should be made by the candidate to sit the assessments and to apply for admission as a solicitor with the SRA. QLTS School is not responsible for whether or not you meet the SRA eligibility criteria for admission.

8. The loading time and quality of the online content depend on the bandwidth of your Internet connection. While the content is accessible through a PC, QLTS School is not responsible for any Internet connection issues, nor for the content’s compatibility with tablets, Apple devices and Android devices.

9. You acknowledge that the textbooks and access to the online MCT portal (such access referred to as the “service”) are personalised and made on request based on the number of Outcomes you are required to pass by the SRA, and that the textbooks and online materials are updated on a frequent basis due to changes in the law.

10. Course fees must be paid in full upon enrolment and are non-refundable. Bookings will not be processed until payment is received. VAT is not applicable on the course fees. In relation to the Consumer Contracts (Information, Cancellation and Additional Charges) Regulations 2013, consumers expressly request and agree that the supply of the service to them will begin when we send them an email and make the service available to them for the first time. The service will be made available within 1-2 working days following receipt of the order and the payment. Consumers acknowledge that they will not have the right to cancel the order once the supply of the service has begun.

11. Legal professionals, paralegals, lawyers, law lecturers, judges and law students hereby acknowledge that by signing up to this course, they are acting in the course of their profession.

12. Following enrolment to the course, MCT Premium candidates will be sent a questionnaire to return to the tutor. On receipt of the questionnaire it is your responsibility to complete and return the questionnaire to your tutor and liaise with the tutor to arrange a time to be available for the initial guidance to take place. The initial consultation will take place over the phone, Skype or GoToMeeting. The customised study plan will be provided to you by email following the initial guidance. Failure to complete and return the questionnaire to the tutor, liaise with the tutor to arrange for the initial guidance, or non-attendance at the agreed time will render your initial guidance and customised study plan forfeited. The initial guidance and customised study plan will be provided to the candidate by the tutor only once. Deferral of the test, or changes in circumstances of the candidate affecting his timetable as suggested by the tutor, will not entitle the candidate to a second guidance or study plan.

13. QLTS School endeavours to protect your personal data. Please see our Privacy Policy (https://www.qlts.co.uk/privacy-policy) to help you understand what we may do with any personal information that we obtain from you and your rights regarding this data. By providing your personal details to us, you signify your acceptance of our Privacy Policy.

14. Whilst all reasonable care has been taken in the preparation of the course materials, neither QLTS School nor any of the authors accept responsibility for any errors it may contain or for any loss sustained, by any person placing reliance upon its contents. Consequential loss shall be deemed to include, but is not limited to, failure in any QLTS assessment, any loss of profits or anticipated profits, damage to reputation or goodwill, loss of business or anticipated business, damages, costs, expenses incurred or payable to any 3rd party or any other indirect or consequential losses.

15. QLTS School’s liability under this agreement shall not exceed the amount of the course fees (in British Pound) paid by the candidate to QLTS School.

16. In the event of any dispute arising out of or in connection with this agreement, including any question regarding its existence, validity or termination, the seat, or legal place, of dispute resolution shall be London, UK. The language to be used in the proceedings shall be English.

17. All disputes shall be referred to and finally resolved by arbitration under the London Court of International Arbitration (LCIA) Rules, which Rules are deemed to be incorporated by reference into this clause. The number of arbitrators shall be one.

The governing law of this agreement shall be the substantive law of England and Wales.

I agree to the terms and conditions above:
